

Name _____ HR _____ Date _____

Science Requirements – Rough Draft

by Liz Belasic

The Name of my constellation is: _____

The Nick Name of my constellation is: _____

There are _____ stars in my constellation.

The best season to see my constellation is _____, especially in the month of _____.

On a star map, you can find my constellation at _____ longitude hours with a latitude of (+/-) _____ degrees. It is right next to the constellations _____ and _____.

The name of the brightest star in my constellation is _____ with a magnitude of (+/-) _____. This star is _____ light years from Earth. This star is a Type _____ (O-M) star and the color of this star is _____ with a surface temperature of _____ degrees (Fahrenheit/ Celsius/ Kelvin). The current stage in its life cycle is _____ and it is _____ years old. (hundreds, thousands, millions, or billions)

A special feature found in my constellation is: _____

