

Rocks

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Rocks'.

Rock Cycle

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Rock Cycle'.

Erosion

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Erosion'.

Deposition

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Deposition'.

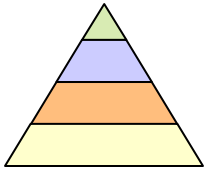

Composition

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Composition'.

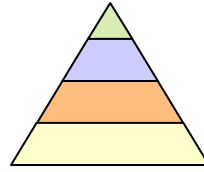

Texture

A dashed rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for students to write notes related to the word 'Texture'.

Directions: Cut out the definitions below and paste them next to the correct vocabulary word.

The process in which material is laid down

The process in which material is laid down

A naturally occurring solid mixture of one or more minerals or organic matter

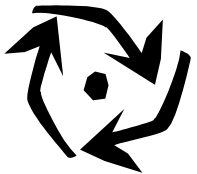

A naturally occurring solid mixture of one or more minerals or organic matter

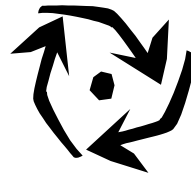

The process by which wind, water, ice, or gravity transports soil and sediment from one location to another

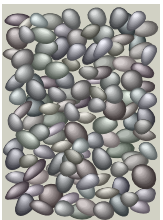

The process by which wind, water, ice, or gravity transports soil and sediment from one location to another

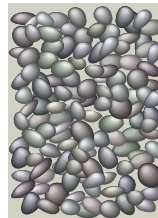

The series of processes in which a rock forms, changes from one type to another, is destroyed, and forms again by geological processes

The series of processes in which a rock forms, changes from one type to another, is destroyed, and forms again by geological processes

The quality of a rock that is based on the sizes, shapes, and positions of the rock's grains

The quality of a rock that is based on the sizes, shapes, and positions of the rock's grains

The chemical make-up of a rock; describes either the minerals or other materials in the rock

The chemical make-up of a rock; describes either the minerals or other materials in the rock